POLICE CHARGE I. W. W. AND ANARCHISTS; MASS MEETING AND PARADE CALLED OFF

COMPLETE NOVEL EACH WEEK IN THE EVENING WORLD

"Circulation Books Open to All."

GIULIA MOROSINI

SAYS BUSY RUMOR

Former Cop, Who Married

Banker's Daughter, Finds

Guards at Gate.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Copyright, 1914, by The Press Publishing

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1914.

10 PAGES

GIRL JOY RIDER IS KILLED, TWO STUDENTS HURT WHEN AUTO PLUNGES INTO DITCH

Miss Betty Mack, Cloak Model, Dead in Crash of Machine at Woodside, L. I.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS.

Otto Schneider and C. Richter in Hospital, the Former in Serious Condition.

Otto Schneider and Charles Richter ge students and members of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, the former a brother of young Mrs. "Joe" Ridder, daughter-in-law of Herman Ridder and the latter a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Richter of No. 46 Washington hverte, has convalencing in St. John's Receivel, Long Island City, from in-juries received in an automobile accithe forride on which the youths at early this morning. But as a resul last evening from the Hotel Astor, the body of Miss Bessie Mack autiful golden-haired girl, who res employed as a cloak model, and dged with Mrs. Clara White at No 216 West Ninety-minth street, lies in roken and he is not expected to live Dr. Moyer of Manhattan was called WHERE ARE THE GIRLS?" HIS FIRST QUESTION.

from the scene, says that when he reached the spot his first move was to go to the woman, who was then siongside the wrecked automo-He halted long enough to see that she was dead. He then went or to where Schneider was lying. Schneider was revived by him and the first etion he asked was. Dr. Lavelle

"What girls?" Dr. Luvelle says be

How many were there?"

Then Schneider lapsed into uncon

The police are looking for another have been a Mrs. May Lyons of One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street and Broadway. The young men are was in the party, but later Schoelder denied this and Richter

(Continued on Second Page.)

Human Nature A fundamental rule of life is to follow the course of least resistance.

YOU MEN WHO SMOKE: How often have you stepped aside to some pillar, fence or wall to light a match and found that the very spot you had chosen as a place to strike a light was match-worn?

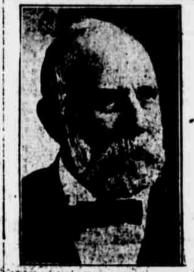

YOU WOMEN WHO SHOP: How many times have you picked out a certain bargain offer from among a whole page of advertised announce-ments and, thinking you would be the ONLY one to take advantage of this particular opportunity, found yourself in the midst of a crowd of Human nature. simost unconsciously, and money may be saved

During the first three months of this

RIVAL OF ROCKEFELLER IN VAST WEALTH WHOSE DEATH OCCURRED TO-DAY.

EREDERICK WEYERHALIESER

J. S. Salter Leaps to Areaway From Window of Eighty-second Street House.

at No. 53 West Eighty-second street was a stranger to yachts and art galearly to-day. He had jumped or fallen leries and all other expensive fads. News of the accident, the third from a window of his room on the of the rich.

has a wife from whom he has been mania. He hated publicity separated for some time. He had

The window is only a snort dissible he committed suicide. No note of explanation was found. The am- mill bulance surgeon from Polyclinic Hos-

BELMONT'S 2-YEAR-OLD

F. WEYERHAEUSER, SIX WORKERS HURT ONE OF THE WORLD'S RICHEST MEN, DEAD

Great Fortune, Which May Reach $500,000,000.

BEGAN AS POOR BOY.

Worked as Mill Hand Then Fast Forged to Front in Wealth-Led Simple Life.

PASADENA, Cal., April 4.-Frederick Weyerhaeuser, the multimillionaire lumber man of St. Paul. died at his winter home to-day of Weyerhaeuser was reputed to be one of the wealthiest men in the world. Weyerhaeuser contracted a severe old three weeks ago, which he was shable to throw off. - Capillary pasumonia quickly developed and bis condition had seen serious for more than week. Early this week the physiians resorted to the use of oxygen to end came at 8,30 A. M.

His sons, John, Frederick, Rudolph and Charles, and his daugh-B. Hill and Mrs. S. S. Davis, were in rches, Frederick Weyerhaen- their recovery. ser left an estate the value of which The injured men his most intimate friends cannot Monroe of Lexington avenue and East come within $100,000,000 of estimating. One Hundred and Twenty-sixth He probably was worth over half a street, William Albright, address not ing in vast timber holdings through- Columbus avenue; Charles Cooley out the North and West.

Known to his intimates as a "gentle Bainbridge street, Brooklyn, and Franhe gave to charity, but always with Hospital. The Rev. Father Dineen of mediate withdrawai of his support. remely frugal. He had no hobbies. One at any moment.

He was past fifty years old, and it stient an intimate friend said of and platoon after pictoon of police police are looking for another was understood at the house, where him recently that his genius for had to be hurried to the spot to look young woman supposed all the boarders are French, that he secretiveness amounted simost to a hold in check the excited crowds

> ber, but no one knew much about 1834, and until he was eighteen years more in their wake. old tilled the vineyard on his father's | The building, which is being conpital who pronounced him dead said Weyerhaeuser fortune was witnessed thing parted and the end of the big but they told me that they could not he died instantly and that life had in 1864, when he wen: into Wisconsin beam dropped smushing through the bury my baby unles the Board of been extinct for some hours.

In 1864, when he well this wisconsist beam dropped amasning through the series of the and hought a great strip of waste tim-false floor as though it were wet Health may be them permission. I University of Paris, and it is reported her for a song. With this land as a paper and crumpling the cross gir-walked thirty-one blocks to the Board. University of Paris, and it is reported therefor a song. With this land as a paper and crumpling the cross girwalked thirty-one blocks to the Hoard agency and it is said they refused to of uniform buttons. Mounted police had a family and relatives in Ocean nucleus, he organized the Mississippi dets. The workmen were knocked of Health and they told me they let him in He went to other gates. River Boom and Logging Company, into the hole with the wreckage. WINS AN ENGLISH STAKE, is still felt throughout the world.

The greatest lot of timber acquired the now worth fifty times that amount. His wife cited in 1911, took charge of the police arrange.

Western Lumber Magnate Left Third Accident Within a Few Weeks at the New Equitable Building.

> A hollow twenty-ton steel unright. forty-five feet long, being lifted into

WHO HAS BARRED HER HUSBAND FROM HOUSE.

Equitable building on the block bounded by Broadway, Cedar, Nassau snot where it tore to pieces the plat form on the level of the second story of the builing, were burled through ters, Mrs. Margaret Jewett, Mrs. W. the hole it made and thrown to the

Possibly the wealthlest, certainly surgeons at Gouverneur and Hudson econd only to John D. Rockefel- Street Hospitals hold out no hope fo

Personally he was a paradox, ofth street; William Beatty, No. 679 and kindly man and a man of deep cls P. Howard, No. 259 West Ninereligious convictions, his name was teenth street. The first five were entirely unknown in the public field taken to Hudson Street Hospital and of charity flis friends assert that Howard was taken to Gouverneur the warning that publicity meant im- oft. Peter's Church gave absolution to Monroe Crommett and Cooley on in-Weverhauser's mabita were ex- formation that they were likely to die automobile was enough for him. He GREAT CROWD HURRIES FROM

Studious always, but studiously finshed through the financia, district which surged about the square. The Weyerhasuser was born in Nelder- quick succession of ambulances

Salter had not been connected with farm. In 1852 he emigrated to structed by the Thompson-Starrett Columbia for quite a while, and had America, bringing his mother and Company, is already up two stories. made a living going out to teach sister with him and going first to The uprights for the next two stories. A poorly dressed Italian walked into had been away for several days, got French to private p ils. When Erie, Pa. Rock Island, Bil. became are now being set in place and bolted the Coroner's office at Arthur and home. He had employed two ex-pofound be wore trousers, shoes and his home in 1856, and it was there together by men working on a Premont avenues, the Bronx, this shirt. His coat and vest were found that he became acquainted with the false flooring of wood laid on ateel morning and laid a parcel on the desk the grounds of the Morosini estate in his room near some evening papers jumber business as a laborer in a "H" cross girders along the top of the of Clerk William Brown tance from the floor, and it is pos- inter went into partnership with F. street side, hear Nassan street was age is the body of my baby Carmella. A. Denickman and bought the gripped by a chain, the links of f am too poor to bury it and I am the main gate which were forged from tron twice tired. I cannot so further, The beginning of the enormous as thick as a man's thumb. Some- "I went to the Fordham Morgue which has remained the governing. From all over the building other a burial permit. Then I came here. body of his transactions and its power the building other Brown took charge of the small the house on the telephone and got its still felt throughout the world.

The greatest tot of timber analysed.

The greatest tot of timber analysed. reacue. The men were lifted out and Victory of Sandmole First Scored by Weyerhaenser came through the carried to the tool houses on the Woman to Asylum for Drowning This Season by American Northern Section of the company. The grants of sales to this company. The while the crowds in Cedar and Pine her infant children March 19, was subjected at Rescribed from a New Yorks.

the English turf during the present season lit is now worth all took charge of the police arrange amount. His wife died in 1911 took charge of the police arrange amount amount is two-year-old. Sandmole to-day seven children survive as the long old of the Carnest The Funeral will take place at the long old of the 1 against The Rock Island, Ill., Mr. Weyerhaeuer's at the long old of the 1 against The body left at noon distance was five furious etraight, and old home. The body left at noon of the carnes are the watchmen loss at The World Training and the role of the carnes. For a sme the long left at noon of the carnes are the watchmen loss at The World Training and the long left at noon of the carnes are the watchmen loss at The World Training and the long left at noon of the carnes are the watchmen loss at The World Training and the long left at noon of the carnes are the watchmen loss at The World Training and the long left at noon of the carnes are the watchmen loss at the watchme street cars, but a little police shouting and pushing restored traffic. Many persons to the skyscrapers dale-on-the-Hudson. She has placed everlooking the new building (which guards over the Riverhead estate to will dwarf then, by its outh and seeg Werner and it is said. Werner and leading to Union Square. into the causer of the accidents which have brought ambulances to the building to Books recently.

MRS GUILL

CARRIES DEAD BABY HE IS TOO POOR TO BURY

fore He Found One to Relieve Him.

"I am John Grasso of No. 2477 Bel-

a atom . dignt have all extenses, in oden to tring $5.7 and in. The best and forers at The World Travel Burnes, Well Bullet and the Bullet and the Bullet and the World Travel Burnes, Well Theorem

stal, has parted from her husband. according to reports current at Riverwas a mounted policeman in 1907

There has been discord in the fam amor. Werner was much given to for a big demonstration this afterseeking the company of former noon, and also for another parade up friends on the police force, according Fifth avenue like that of two weeks been boarding there since last Octo- saulhelm, Southern Germany. In from the hospitals brought hundreds Walke! Miles to See Officials Be- was also reported to Mrs. Werner to reports which reached his wife. It ago. that her husband had been visiting gling with the anarchists reported.

his former wife. Altce The final break came, it is asserted, manager of the mili, and a short time. The twenty-ten upright on the Pine mont avenue," said ne. "That pack- Fifty-fourth street. These guards were missing when Werner reached

FOUND TWO STRANGE GUARDS ON DUTY

Instead of his own men he found two strangers posted. They said they were members of a private detective couldn't help me unless you gave me let him in the went to district the called up disconnected to-day and the guards While the crowds in Cedar and Pine while the crowds in Cedar and Pine while the crowds in Cedar and Pine have thanked bying atreets murmured sympathy to the channel with murder in Greenwith the control of the control roacted Mrs. Werner and her brothe

PARADE OF THE I.W.W. CHARGE OF THE POLICE

Mounted Men With Drawn Clubs Ride Into the Midst of the Mob and Disperse It in Short Order.

BLUECOATS IN EVIDENCE ALL ALONG FIFTH AVENUE

Orders Given to Allow Reasonable. Speech but Nothing to Provoke or Advise a Breach of the Peace.

The sight of hundreds of policemen in uniform and detective banked around Union Square or planted in stores in the vicinity, quest the promoters of a mass meeting of I. W. W. and anarchists to coll the affair off this afternoon.

An attempt was made to organize a parade to march up Pitth avenue, but Inspector Cahalane broke up the assemblage by a charge of mounted men and two agitators carrying red banners inscribed "Taunenhaum Must Be Free!" were arrested and hustled to the East Twentysecond street station.

By direction of Commosmoner Mc. with an orderly accomble Kay Inspector Cahalane had taken the ins Fifth avenue. The precautions were the peace will be arres the I. W. W. and Anarchists had ad- against the authority of the lawvertised a mass meeting to begin at will meet it with force." tion of Tannenbaum, but because cards reading as follows were disunions of cloak and suit makers affilisted with the Central Federated Union had called a mass meeting for 4 o'clock and had received parade permits covering all the streets adjacent

The I. W. W. and Anarchist leaders when he saved the life of Giulla had received no parade permits, nor Morosini by stopping a runaway, and had they notified the police of their the married him four years later intention to hold a mass meeting. But detectives have been reporting to Headquarters for the last four days that the Anarchists were preparing > Detectives who have been minbig Fifth avenue hotels and res taurants. For that reason all precinct detectives in the affected district were assigned to the hotels this afternoon and uniformed men were men in. posted, out of sight, in Delmonico's, Sherry's, the Waldorf and other Fifth avenue hotels and in vacant atore rooms convenient to such

The L. W. W. and Anarchists began to gather at the north end of Union Square at 1 o'clock. In the meantime Inspector Cabalane had distributed his forces. Everywhere was the bleam of uniform buttons. Mounted policecircled slowly around the square.

Square since the bomb throwing. There was a lot of disconnected talk, but nothing in the way of concerted action. Detectives took notes of remarks made by men who tried to and they appeared to be fully harnague small crowds.

ancoin Steffens, one of the promoters of the "L W. W. mass meeting of the unemployed," asked Inspector Cahalane if there would be anypolice interference.

Soon after this red and ye tributed: hold a demonstration in Union on April 4 the mass meeting mounted the stand at the north of the square and explained mi to the crowd. But these who gathered in anticipation of meeting remained and banners described above app the easterly side of the started to organize a per-

The surging mob could not be handled by foot policemen, so I tor Cabalane cent his

The horseb with drawn clubs. They, pred men who were trying to pe

Extra reserves were on duty to the west side and from Fifth

SAILING TO-DAY.